

Home4Good

A $4.5 million collaborative initiative to support programs to end homelessness in Pennsylvania

PROGRAM GOALS

Home4Good is an initiative between FHLBank Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency to fund projects, programs or activities that work to:

- ▶ PREVENT homelessness by maintaining the current housing situation, or to DIVERT to alternative housing options.
- ▶ Solicit INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS to seek an end to homelessness.
- ▶ Address CRITICAL NEEDS among the network of providers serving the homeless.

ELIGIBLE USES

- ▶ Homeless outreach
- ▶ Housing models designed to serve youth
- ▶ Eviction prevention
- ▶ Homeless diversion support including providing security deposits
- ▶ Transportation assistance
- ▶ Rapid re-housing
- ▶ Landlord engagement and outreach
- ▶ Recovery support
- ▶ Re-entry support for justice involved individuals
- ▶ Rent/utility assistance
- ▶ Non-time-limited supportive housing
- ▶ Coordinated entry
- ▶ Employment assistance
- ▶ Service delivery

FUNDING PROCESS

- 1 Service organizations will submit a proposal to their regional Continuums of Care using the Home4Good application.
- 2 CoCs will collect, review, summarize and prioritize proposals from regional service providers.
- 3 CoCs will secure a FHLBank Pittsburgh member institution co-applicant(s).
- 4 CoCs will submit a proposal packet including collected proposals and a summary of the ranked proposals to PHFA.
- 5 FHLBank Pittsburgh and PHFA will review applications and select award recipients.

NOTE: Organizations outside the jurisdiction of a participating CoC may apply directly to PHFA by the Home4Good deadline.

To learn more, join PHFA's informational webinars on June 21 (10 a.m.) and July 9 (2 p.m.).
