

2026 PHFA KATHY A. POSSINGER HOUSING POLICY FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN!

Do you have an interest in affordable housing and community development? PHFA's Housing Policy Fellowship could be for you!

PHFA's two research fellows complete a self-led research project that addresses a housing or community development challenge in Pennsylvania. Research projects should complement, challenge or expand on relevant issues in the field.

FELLOWSHIP DETAILS:

- ▶ Applicants do not need to have an institutional, organizational or governmental affiliation.
- ▶ Fellowship provides a monthly stipend of $1,000 over the course of the project ($12,000 maximum funding).
- ▶ Research must be completed in 12 months.
- ▶ Funds may be used for activities supporting the project including interviews with experts, securing study materials, traveling to attend conferences and more.

APPLICATIONS DUE BY 5 P.M., AUGUST 1.

Learn more at www.PHFA.org or email PolicyFellowship@phfa.org.