AGENDA

9:00am-9:30am – FREE continental breakfast & networking

9:30am -12:00pm – Programming

- ❖ John A. Hohmann Pharm D., RPh., CCP. Owner of BrightStar Care of Stroudsburg and Allentown will be presenting “Understanding dementia care for a family member and how to pre pare for it.” Without proper planning, dementia not only impacts the quality of life for the patient but for family members as well. What happens if a decline in health occurs? Where do I go? What do I do? Will I be alone and isolated? We will discuss concerns, conditions and solutions in health care that need to be addressed. He will also give information on his company and how it can benefit your residents & clients.

- ❖ Dave Shallcross from the Attorney General’s Office will be presenting “Opioids: What we need to know”. This presentation will discuss what are opioids, proper storage, disposal of Opioids and Narcan and what PA is doing regarding the Opioid crisis.

There is no cost for the Forum. Register by emailing Alicia Spencer at: aspencer@phfa.org. Registration closes on October 26th and is limited to 35 attendees!
