

April 27, 2017

Special edition

HDC MidAtlantic names Hudson Housing Advocate of the Year

Housing Development Corporation MidAtlantic (HDC MidAtlantic) honored Brian Hudson, PHFA executive director and CEO, as the Housing Advocate of the Year during an event last night in Lancaster. This award is presented to a person who works to impact communities and their residents with safe and affordable housing. Hudson was presented with this award during the Faces of Affordable Housing Banquet for his continuous work to bring affordable housing to the Commonwealth. He has been committed during the past 40 years to meeting the housing needs of Pennsylvania residents with low- to moderate-incomes, with disabilities and seniors.

"I'm very appreciative to HDC MidAtlantic for honoring me with this award," said Hudson. "There continues to be a real need for affordable housing. To be a part of a solution is something I'm very passionate about. Having a safe and affordable place to call home is something to which everyone should have access."

HDC MidAtlantic President & CEO Michael R. Carper presented Hudson with the award stating, "Brian is the leading advocate in Pennsylvania when it comes to meeting the housing needs for those who have lower incomes or a disability, are veterans or ex-offenders. His dedication to the affordable housing industry has helped thousands of families and individuals across the state, and HDC MidAtlantic values his work and the work of PHFA."

Brian Hudson
PHFA Executive Director & CEO

Tom Wolf, Governor • Brian Hudson Sr., Executive Director & CEO

To receive an email notice when a new issue of PHFA Developments is posted, or for comments and questions, please write Renae Hodges at rhodges@phfa.org.

Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency
PO Box 8029 • Harrisburg, PA 17105-8029
1-855-U-ARE-HOME (827-3466) • TTY: 800-654-5984

